

Professional Golf Management Programs (PGM)

The Canadian PGA has eight approved Professional Golf Management Programs:

Camosun College (Victoria, BC)
Georgian College (Orillia, ON)
Grant MacEwan College (Edmonton, AB)
Holland College (Charlottetown, PEI)
Humber College (Etobicoke, ON)
Lethbridge College (Lethbridge, AB)
Niagara College (Niagara-on-the-lake, ON)
St. Clair College (Chatham, ON)

The CPGA of Quebec has a PGM program agreement with Lafleche College.

Curriculum

Each school shall have as its focus a major in Business Management and Marketing. In addition, each school shall offer courses and meet minimum Canadian PGA learning outcomes (schedule A) in Food and Beverage, Turfgrass Maintenance and Golf specific courses as required elements of their program.

The Canadian PGA shall maintain its role as the sole provider of instruction pertaining to how to teach the game of golf as part of the Canadian PGAs Teaching and Coaching Certification Program (TCCP). This will ensure that the national standard as set by the Canadian PGAs Education and Membership Committee is being upheld and universally applied.

Minimum learning outcomes as presented in Schedule A will evolve as the marketplace demands and at the approval of the Canadian PGA. Required minimum learning outcomes will be reviewed at each PGM Annual Review Meeting.

The PGM schools will refer all instruction of the game of golf to the Canadian PGA. Each PGM program may deliver courses in player development, provided they are for the sole purpose of helping the student develop as a player and in no way shall the course attempt to present any methodology pertaining to the teaching of the game to others.
