

Opened in 2020 Mickelson National naturally invites camaraderie and playful fellowship. Its brilliant routing, water features and elevation provides both challenge and amusement. If you were a bronc-rider, you would describe this golf course as unbridled, an adventure made for thrill-seekers. With course architecture focused on creative shot-making, multi-option tee complexes and warm western hospitality, this unique use of land, shaping 18-holes amongst memorable and majestic landscapes, is an experience not to be missed.
