CHESTERMERE, AB

November 20th, 2025

Lakeside Golf Club is a semi-private golf club located just minutes east of Calgary, in the heart of Chestermere, Alberta. The City of Chestermere is growing exponentially, and now boasts a community of 28,000 plus people. With the growth of the community, Lakeside Golf Club has grown as well, with now nearly 300 members, consisting of principal members, spousal members and junior members. It boasts a very busy Ladies League with 150 ladies, a Men's League with 170 men, and a junior program that sees annually over 100 children participate throughout the course of the season. In 2025, Lakeside Golf Club was purchased by the City of Chestermere which promotes stability and longevity as a golf course for years to come.

Lakeside Golf Club also continues to be a leader in custom fitting and coaching/lessons program for the community of Chestermere and area. In 2025, Lakeside's PGA of Alberta Professionals taught 400+ hours (combined) of lessons between our indoor facility, on the range, putting green and golf course. Lakeside is also TrackMan 4 powered for our indoor simulator and for outdoor usage during lessons and fittings.

Lakeside Golf Club seeks the services of an Associate Professional who is in good standing with the PGA of Canada for the 2026 season and beyond. This position is a year-round position and will allow the professional to grow and develop at Lakeside.

We ask that all interested applicants please email your cover letter and resume to tyler.willner@lakesidegreens.com. Only the successful candidates will be contacted for an interview.
