

CLUB PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR

Club Professional of the Year Guidelines:

- ◆ Demonstration of outstanding qualities of leadership.
- ◆ Demonstration of outstanding management.
- ◆ Maintain a substantial record of service to the Association and the game of golf.
- ◆ Well-regarded as a role model to other PGA of Alberta Club Professionals.

Club Professional of the Year Criteria:

- ◆ Overall performance as a Club Professional.
- ◆ Business innovation and continuous improvement at their facility.
- ◆ Leader and role model as it relates to the promotion and growth of the game of golf.
- ◆ Demonstrated involvement within the community and the Association.

Selection Process:

- ◆ The nomination should be based on a nominee's entire past experience as a Club Professional.
- ◆ Achievements during the past 12 months should be emphasized.

Eligibility:

All Class "A" Professionals in good standing in the following membership categories are eligible for this award: Head Professional, Director of Golf, Manager of Golf Operations, Pro-Manager, and Director of Operations.

To be eligible for the Club Professional of the Year Award, one must be responsible for the golf operations at a golf course. If the nominee is responsible for and oversees the entire operation, including areas like food & beverage, course maintenance, and administration in addition to golf operations, they should be nominated for the Executive Professional of the Year Award.

The following are ineligible:

- ◆ Previous PGA of Canada Murray Tucker Club Professional of the Year Award winners
- ◆ Apprentice Professionals and PGA of Canada Life Members
- ◆ PGA of Canada National Staff & PGA of Canada Zone Staff

NOTE: ONCE A MEMBER WINS NATIONALLY, THEY BECOME INELIGIBLE TO WIN PROVINCIALLY IN THE SAME CATEGORY

