TOPIC

Unconventional Distance

Bridging the gap between the long drive and average. A look at some of the unconventional methods and techniques used by the longest drivers in golf to create speed and the potential practical application.

BIO

Jason Zuback has earned international fame in the field of golf as one of the world's longest drivers of a golf ball in the history of the game. He is the six-time World Long Drive Champion and only competitor to have won more than three open division championships (5 Open titles + 1 Senior). Jason is the first competitor from outside the United States to have won the prestigious title and is the first international competitor to have ever made it to the final round in the event's history.

Jason has been involved in golf-related fitness, performance, and distance maximization his entire career. He has been part of the Titleist Performance Institute (TPI) since its inception in 2003. TPI is the world's leading educational organization dedicated to the study of how the human body functions in relation to the golf swing.
